ENJOY OUR expert insights SO YOU CAN TRAVEL WITH CONFIDENCE

It's a phrase that we hear (and use!) a lot, but what does it really mean to "live like a local" when you're a traveler? Whether you're spending a week exploring Alaska for the first time or are joining a passionate river cruise guide from vineyards to authentic French bistros in a single day, we believe in creating experiences that mean something — and not just going through a checklist.

As travel enthusiasts ourselves, we have spent years developing relationships with locals around the globe. Our insiders enthusiastically share their long-held traditions, like how to make real Irish soda bread and which cultural traditions to seek out in Japan. Our insights stretch as far as you'd like to go.

Reserving with us also gives you access to special benefits. Enjoy extras like hotel credits and a welcome amenity at our favorite stays. We can also connect you with a complimentary Private Car & Guide on select voyages.

Let's get going and see what part of the world you'll experience next!

Essential Items for a Travel Insurance Claim

When you have comprehensive coverage, you're free to put aside the stresses of the unknown and focus on the fun part of travel. Then, if an unexpected situation arises — such as a canceled or delayed flight, lost luggage or a health emergency — you can trust that you'll be protected financially. However, it's important to file your claim properly, which is much easier when you have the right paperwork from the start:

- Keep a copy of your travel insurance plan (and read all of the fine print!).
- Hold on to your flight information, boarding passes and any other relevant travel documents.
- Save the claim check stub and baggage tags from your checked luggage.
- If your luggage is lost, obtain a Property Irregularity Report (PIR) from the airline.
- In the case of lost luggage, flight delays, cancellations, or a medical emergency, save any and all receipts — and make any important notes on the back to keep track of them.
- Depending on the event, you will also want to have medical reports, police reports and any other documentation related to your claim. Have questions? Call or email us and we'll help you find the plan that makes the most sense for you.

WHY AUSTRALIA IS HAVING ITS MOMENT

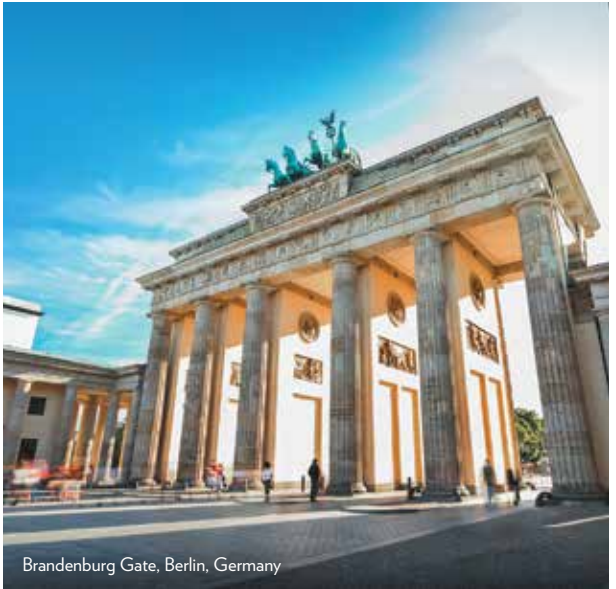

It's time to move Australia off your wish list and onto your 2025 calendar. Kick off the year at the Australian Open, as tennis legends from around the world compete in Melbourne on January 12–26, 2025, and the Australian Formula 1 Australian Grand Prix will take over in March. Catch up with cultural attractions at Vivid Sydney, May 19 through June 15, 2025, as the city lights up for the largest arts festival in the Southern Hemisphere. We'll time your visit to Australia to these major events and connect you with other local highlights along the way.

READY TO RACE

Spring beauty overflows in the Principality of Monaco, where enchanting gardens burst forth in vibrant colors and the harbor gleams with lavish yachts ready to sail in the Mediterranean Sea. More than just a lovely time of year, the streets of Monte Carlo will be buzzing with energy for the Formula 1 Grand Prix de Monaco 2025. Contact us to plan a trip or ask us about reserving a Mediterranean cruise that delivers you to the port just in time to experience this exciting event.

AN ANNIVERSARY TO REMEMBER

Coming up is the 80th anniversary of the end of World War II in Europe. The city of Berlin has declared May 8, 2025, as Victory in Europe Day — a one-time public holiday where you can commemorate this landmark day on a historical walking tour of the city. Ask us about WWII-themed cruises in Europe, and learn about the final days of the war at The National World War II Museum in New Orleans.

ASK OUR EXPERTS

OUR EXPERTS SHARE THEIR INSIGHTS INTO GETTING THE MOST OUT OF YOUR TRAVELS.

What are the benefits of going with a guide?

(Hint: It's a gift that keeps on giving!)

Imagine the thrill of telling someone all about your dream vacation and then having that experience handed over to you — all tied up with a perfect bow! Our specialty has always been crafting unique vacations, so when we connect you with an organized tour or build a bespoke itinerary, we can make your journey unforgettable.

What makes guided journeys so extraordinary? It's in the passion and expertise of local guides who are not just leaders but enthusiastic ambassadors of their culture. They'll take you beyond the guidebooks and reveal their favorite spots — like a charming bistro tucked away in an alley, an artsy neighborhood splashed with colorful murals or an offbeat museum that sparks your curiosity.

Feel all the stress of planning melt away as we take care of the logistics. Whether you're traveling with a partner, your best friends or 20 of your favorite relatives, it's OK to hand over the reins. A guided experience can include seamless transportation such as private coaches waiting to whisk you away after a delightful breakfast, tickets prepurchased for hassle-free train journeys or a friendly hand to hail a taxi whenever you need.

Not only that, but local partnerships grant you access to exclusive experiences, such as VIP entrances and skip-the-line privileges at iconic sights from the majestic Alhambra to the awe-inspiring Vatican. Let's not overlook the appeal of luggage transfers and a guide who speaks the local language!

Traveling isn't just about seeing new places; it's about forging lifelong connections with those who are just as curious about the world as you are. Join a guided vacation where friendships blossom over shared adventures and unforgettable experiences. Reach out to us today via phone or email, or visit our website, found on the back cover, and use OFFER M27571 to start planning today!

◀ MUSIC FOR YOUR SOUL
When a journey through Iceland includes insights from an ethnomusicologist, you know you’re in for something special. Learn more from Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic’s cultural specialist Jacob Edgar.

What exactly does an ethnomusicologist do?
We investigate music in its social and cultural contexts — as it relates to their histories, values, social and political structures, concepts of art, language, and so on.

What are some ways a traveler can seek out music in their local experiences?
Before I visit a new place I reach out to people to get their suggestions of good local artists and recommendations for live venues and festivals. I can’t tell you how many times my adventure in a new country began in the taxi ride from the airport, when I name-dropped one or two local musicians to the driver. The next thing you know they are playing me their favorite songs and [recommending] places to see live music. Often, I stumble across great music by keeping my ears open. Following the sounds of music in the streets has led me to amazing concerts, street festivals, jam sessions, rehearsals, and so much more.

What makes Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic voyages unique in this aspect?

I use music to deepen people’s understanding and appreciation of the destinations we are visiting. That means inviting world-class musicians who are experts in both the performance and history of local music tradition. It also means giving them some historical and cultural background to appreciate what they are hearing and put it in some context. Whenever possible, I try to present music in a magical local setting to bring it out of the concert hall and into the environment where it was formed.

What experiences in Iceland are you excited to share with guests?

Iceland has a thriving music scene and punches far above its weight in terms of bands per capita that have become popular around the world. It also has a rich choral tradition and more recently has produced several acclaimed film composers. I will be inviting some of my favorite local musicians to perform for our guests and — in some cases — to travel with us as artists-in-residence on board the ship. Guests can expect music inspired by Icelandic legends and life in a rugged and beautiful landscape performed by captivating musicians with great stories to tell.

Want to learn more about culturally focused journeys? Call, email or visit our website, found on the back cover, and enter OFFER M27436.

CRUISE GLOBAL, EXPLORE LOCAL

Find out how to roam like a local with Norwegian Cruise Line.

With Go Local shore excursions on Norwegian Cruise Line, you not only get to experience the world from an insider’s point of view — you also reap all the benefits of reserving with us. Explore with trusted locals who know these ports intimately, travel with smaller groups of less than 25 guests and never get left behind if your excursion runs late.

Santorini, Greece

BEHIND THE LANDMARKS OF BRUGES

Go past the famed 15th-century Kruispoort gate to see what lies beyond. Wander through lanes lined with residential homes and see Bruges’ four windmills that remain on the ramparts as you walk along Kruisvest. Peer into the private Jeruzalemkapel (Jerusalem Chapel) and then observe the ancient artisan trade of lace making.

A DIFFERENT SIDE OF FLORENCE

Let an expert guide you through the humming San Lorenzo Market with its open-air vendors and point out local delicacies and architectural delights within the restored cast-iron building. Just a short walk from the city’s main piazza is Oltrarno, a marvelously cool neighborhood loaded with boutique shops, trendy restaurants and open spaces for people-watching.

LISBON’S DELICACIES

Bring your appetite to Lisbon’s most beguiling neighborhoods. A flavorful bite of creamy Serra da Estrela cheese transports you to the mountains where this sheep’s milk cheese is made. In Mouraria, the Moorish Quarter where fado music was born, you’ll sip ginja, a sweet cherry-infused liquor. Hop aboard a local tram and end your journey with Portuguese favorites, such as flaky pastéis de bacalhau (codfish pastry).

TRADITIONS OF SANTORINI

Amid the beauty of this Greek island, get an intimate look at an ancient tradition: local craftsmen making traditional Greek instruments in the Museum of Musical Instruments. Try your hand at strumming a bouzouki or laouto before visiting a family-owned winery to sip classic Santorini wines.

TRAVELING TENERIFE

Explore beyond the beaches of Tenerife to reach the fertile region of the Orotava Valley where bananas, sugarcane and grapes are grown using traditional techniques. Take a guided tour of a banana plantation and sample the fresh fruit — as well as sweet banana liqueur — on this engaging excursion.

ISTANBUL’S CREATIVE SIDE

Travel by ferry across the Golden Horn to experience the Asia side of Istanbul. Wander through the multicultural Moda district and pop into a hip café or bar in Kadıköy. Antique shops, vendors selling Turkish Delight (lokum) and a visit to a market are all part of your day’s adventures.

Ask us about Norwegian Cruise Line’s Free At Sea™ benefits that include dining, beverage and internet packages as well as valuable shore excursion credit to use toward these exceptional experiences. Folklore and Flavors OF EUROPE

WITH GLOBUS.

Wine tasting

With a friend in every city, Globus creates the connections that heighten every aspect of your journey. As you get to know your knowledgeable guides, you'll learn something new about their culture, their traditions and their cuisine — all through a local's point of view.

In between Icelandic adventures with awe-inspiring waterfalls, volcanoes and hot springs, your guide may entertain you with tales of elves and huldufolk (hidden people) who are believed to inhabit the rocks found on beaches and lava fields.

Expect a warm Irish welcome when you arrive at Rathbaun Farm in Galway County. Step into the kitchen where you'll learn the nuances of making deliciously authentic scones and enjoy them with sweet preserves and freshly whipped cream.

Along with tips from your local guide, you'll also have a chance to talk to experts in their respective fields — like a truffle hunter in the hills of Umbria or horse trainers in Spain's Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art. Glean insights from their experience and get to know each destination from new perspectives.

Learn to cook like an Italian with Delta Vacations.

Pasta-making class, Italy

Amid the bustle of a Florentine market, a whirlwind of scents and sights seems to mingle with the lively chatter of Italians doing their daily shopping. Displayed before you are stalls filled with ingredients that, on their own, may seem outside of your culinary comfort zone: fresh pecorino Toscano, aged a minimum of 20 days; earthy nuggets of fragrant truffles; and dried beans of all shapes and colors.

Thanks to the expertise of an English-speaking guide, you'll learn to navigate an Italian market and taste your way through regional delicacies. Taste the grassy notes of olive oil, discover an array of salamis and cheeses, and find the right pairing of local wines.

Should you desire a more hands-on approach, combine a market visit with a cooking lesson. Unlock the secrets of authentic Italian cuisine as you craft a fresh pasta dish with classic sauces or knead the perfect dough to create your own wood-fired pizza. You might even learn how to make sweet, airy gelato from scratch and, of course, enjoy the results of all your efforts.

Whether you're seeking a foodie excursion in Florence, Dublin, Paris, or beyond, we can arrange an unforgettable day with Delta Vacations. Call, email or visit our website, found on the back cover, and enter OFFER M27445 to learn more.

ADVENTURE at Its Finest

Embrace the transformative power of travel while staying true to yourself with G Adventures.

Community-focused exploration with G Adventures is elevated with the new Geluxe Collection, balancing life-changing adventures with a sense of community and comfort.

The philosophy that sets apart G Adventures remains steadfast, with smaller groups traveling mindfully throughout the world. Connect with communities knowing that your manner of travel will benefit them directly. Shopping, transportation, dining, and enriching excursions satiate your curiosity about how locals live, while doing so respectfully.

WHAT IS AN OMG DAY?

As you move easily among local communities with your G Adventures guide, you'll have the freedom to pick and choose a personalized travel experience. Explore the wilds of the Maasai Mara National Reserve in Kenya on foot as you hike the lush Olololo Escarpment where wildlife gathers, or choose a morning safari to experience nature from a different perspective.

As you travel between the coast and the vineyards of Portugal, a magical day offers you the choice of exploring Porto on an e-bike or aboard a leisurely river cruise, followed by a tasting of the region's famed port wines.

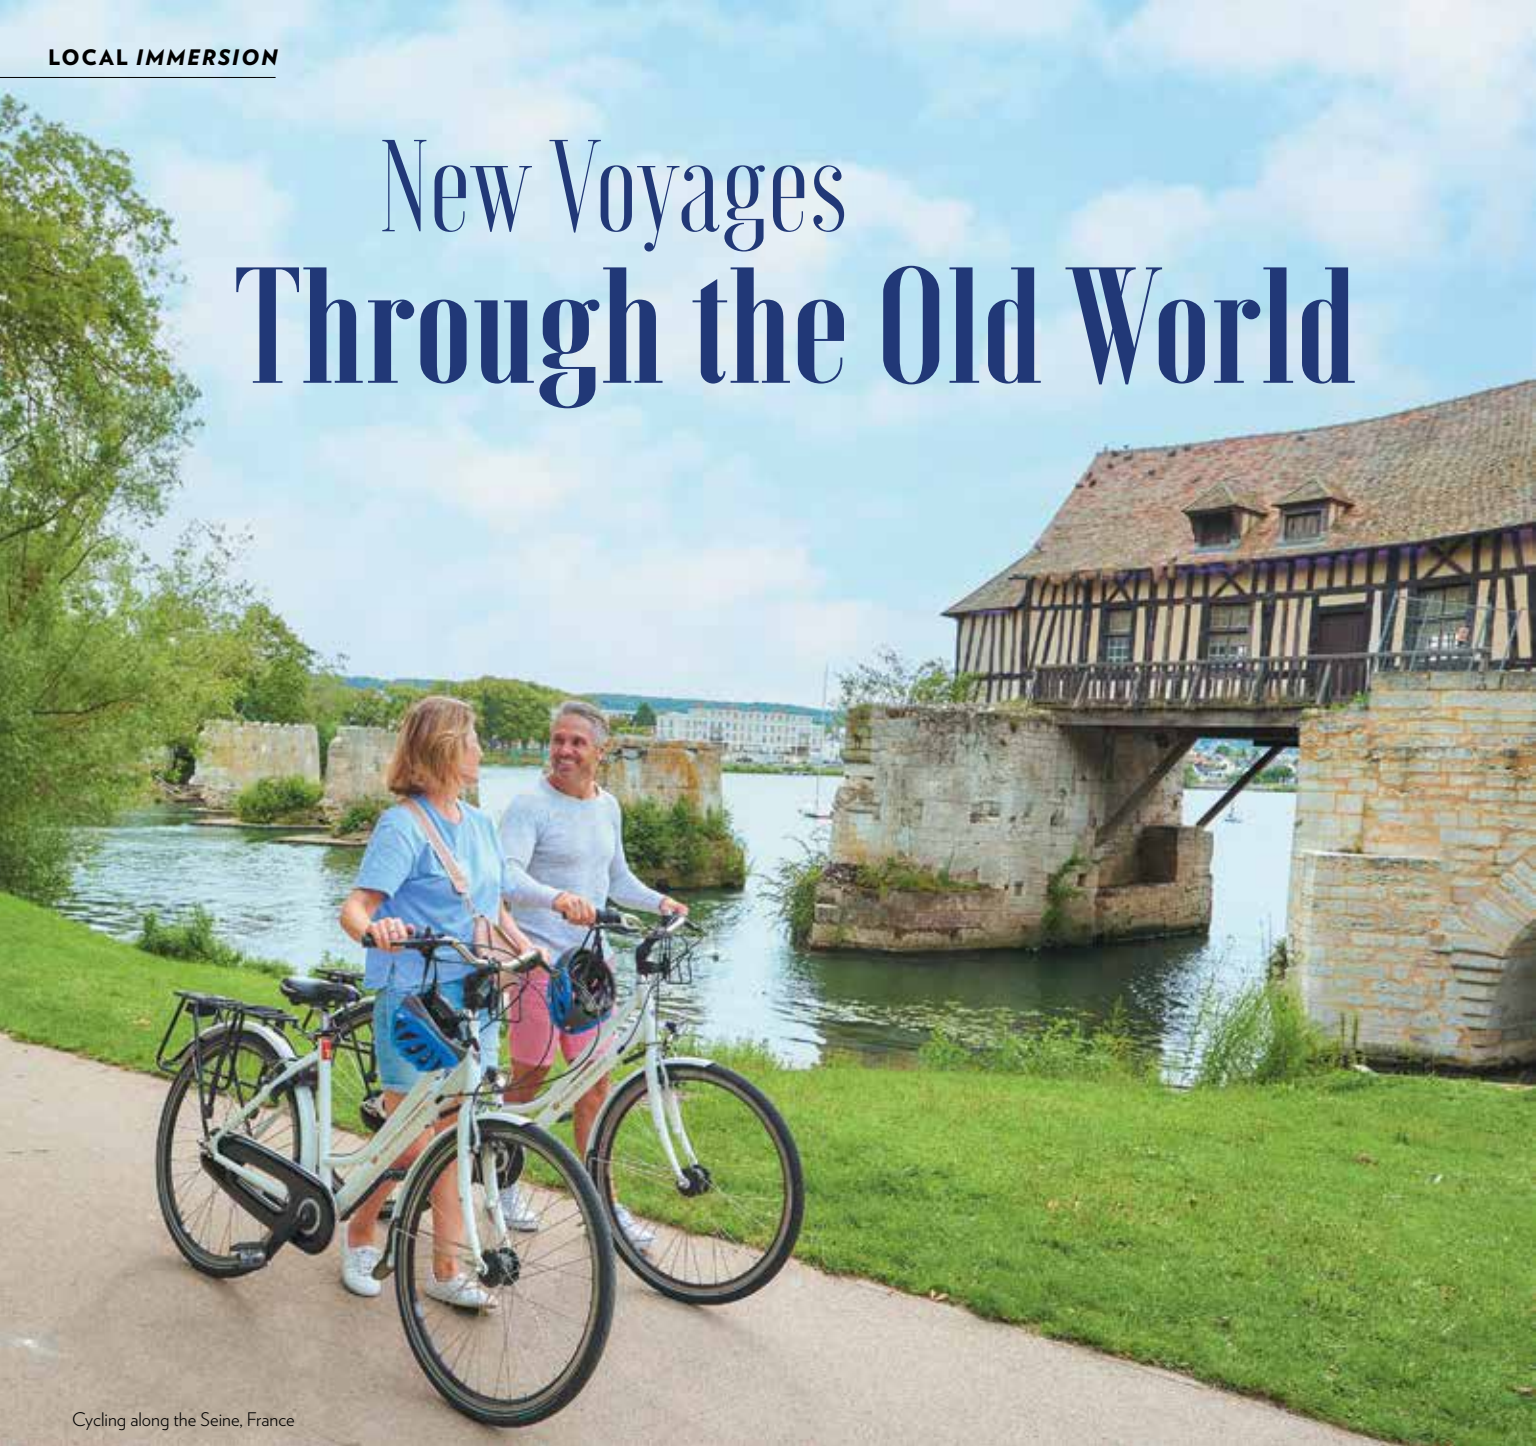

WHAT IS AN OMG STAY?

An OMG Stay is a luxurious hotel that's set among the otherworldly caves of Cappadocia, Turkey. It's an opulent stone cottage within a bird-watching habitat in Dholpur, India. Standout accommodations such as these are handpicked to enhance your experience in an already extraordinary journey.

Geluxe journeys enhance active travel with upgraded accommodations and additional inclusions such as meals, private transport and select activities. Let us arrange your next great adventure by giving us a call, sending an email or visiting our website, found on the back cover. Enter OFFER M27447 to learn more.

New Voyages Through the Old World

Cycling along the Seine, France

Take a fresh look at French wine country with AmaWaterways.

AmaWaterways has always had a special bond with France. Several voyages traverse romantic rivers, and the cruise line has long been connected to the exclusive gastronomic society of La Chaîne des Rôtisseurs. It's perhaps no surprise then that AmaWaterways is navigating brand-new voyages in France. Idyllic in every way, the Saône flows from northeastern France into the Burgundy countryside and connects with the Rhône. Begin your week with a cycling excursion in Dijon and finish it out with glasses of Beaujolais in a local winery. In between, your journey is filled with more moments of delight, like wandering through the commune of Seurre in the heart of Burgundy, exploring the former Benedictine monastery of Cluny Abbey and taking a tour of the famed Les Halles Market.

Tauck introduces smaller groups for greater adventures.

Our world is so vast, but the experience of travel brings us closer together. Create tightly knit connections with Tauck when you travel in a smaller group with an average of 15 guests.

When you join a smaller group departure, you'll enjoy deeper access to destinations by way of local cultures, landscapes and stories. Being in a more intimate group on these enriching land journeys gives you more time, freedom and flexibility. A smaller group also allows you to create more meaningful connections with your Tauck Director, local guides and travel companions.

As Tauck celebrates its 100th anniversary in 2025 there will be smaller group offerings in more than 12 countries in North America, Europe and Africa.

Spend a week exploring Ireland with other like-minded travelers, experiencing off-the-beaten-path excursions and enjoying special occasions like a private recital at Saint Fin Barre's Cathedral in Cork and two nights in Dromoland Castle. In northern Spain, immerse yourself in Rioja's traditional wine country and spend a memorable night at the famous Hotel Marqués de Riscal — an architectural masterpiece crafted by Frank Gehry.

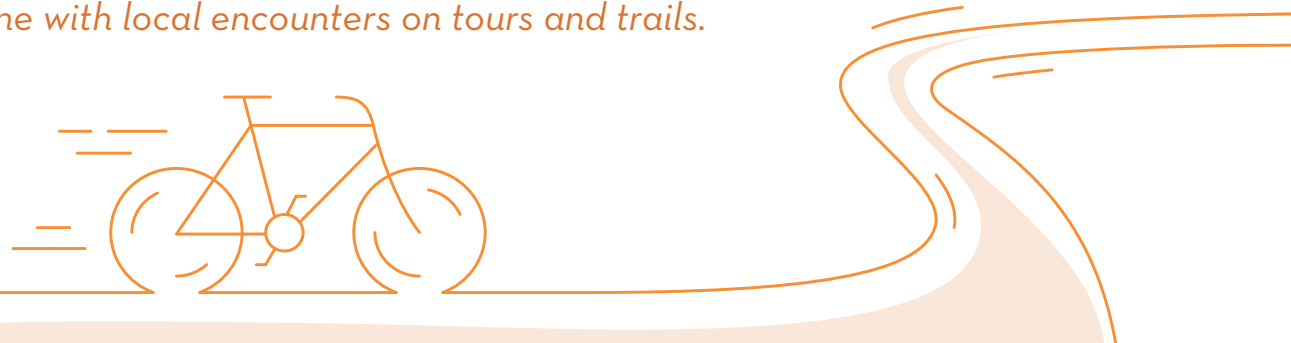

Discover the best of the Canadian Rockies with two-night stays at luxurious Fairmont resorts and an in-depth tour of Canada's marvelous national parks. Linger on the shores of Lake Louise, explore your way in the wonders of Jasper National Park, and bask in the beauty of Banff from a baronial castle in the Rockies.

Red spires and hoodoos surround you on America's Canyonlands on a smaller group adventure through three inspirational national parks: Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon and Zion. Cruise along Lake Powell with dinner and champagne, and take a flightseeing tour over Lake Powell and Glen Canyon National Recreation Area.

Take the Back Roads

With Backroads, hiking and biking adventures intertwine with local encounters on tours and trails.

Experiencing a place is different than simply seeing one. Each journey with Backroads combines scenic outdoor adventures with cultural immersion, like meeting artists in their workspaces, learning about local architecture and checking out restaurants that are off the main trail.

A multi-adventure journey through Iceland takes you to remote locales far beyond Reykjavik. Trek over a glacier and hike through lava landscapes in addition to visiting an Atlantic puffin farm and enjoying a performance from an Icelandic singer-songwriter.

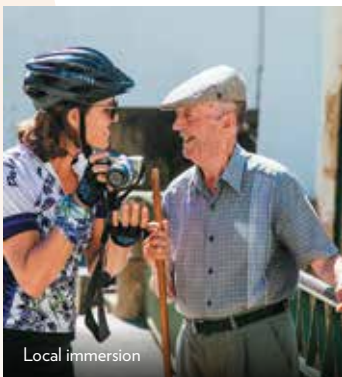

Hop between the islands of Corsica and Sardinia, each one nestled in the deep blue Mediterranean Sea. As you bicycle between the coastline and the mountains, you'll gain insights into these islands' strategic roles during World War II and stop for meals in family-owned restaurants.

An adventure from the Atlantic Pyrenees in France to the green hills of Basque Country is one of awe-inspiring beauty. In between dreamy walks with guides who excitedly talk about the flora and fauna, you'll embark on a pintxos tasting tour and learn the rules of a local game of Basque pelota.

While a shared passion for exploration unites you, it's even more meaningful to travel with like-minded people. Several of Backroads' guided journeys are customized for families and women, so you can see the world alongside a new group of friends.

Give us a call or send us an email with the kind of adventure travel that you're seeking. Visit our website, found on the back cover, and enter OFFER M27442 to learn more.

Local immersion

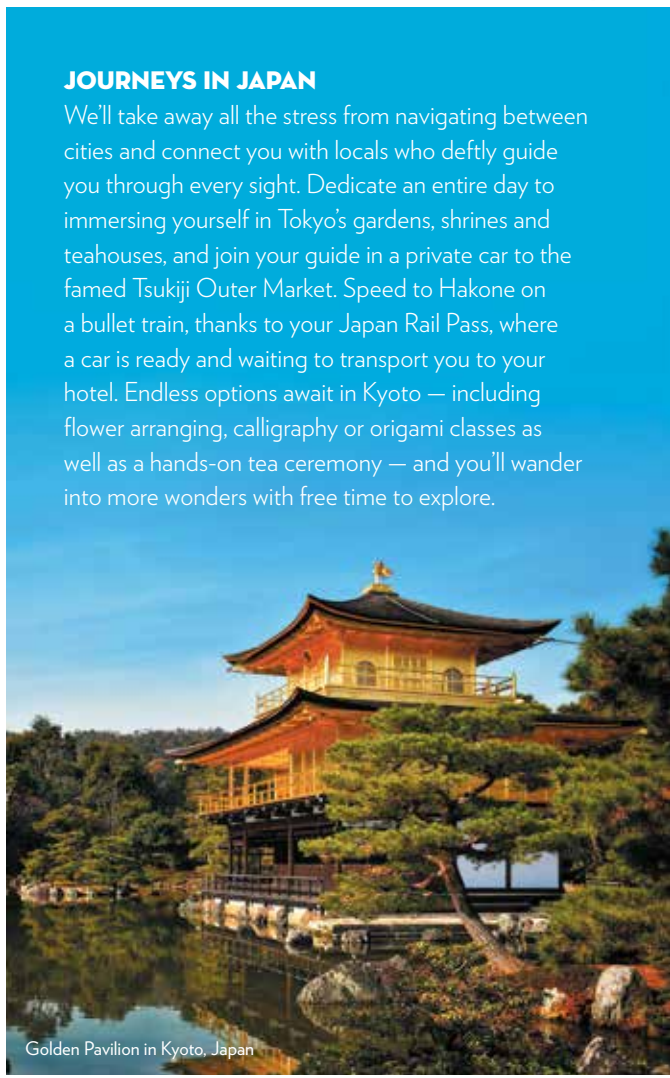

Your First Time In...

When you're traveling to a country for the first time or exploring a new-to-you region, it helps to have experts by your side. When we curate your itinerary with Classic Vacations, you'll enjoy a truly personalized vacation-planning experience.

LA BELLA VITA IN ITALIA

The winding canals of Venice become even more enchanting as you admire the hidden wonders along the Grand Canal and quiet inner canals, sampling traditional Venetian snacks paired with prosecco. After marveling over the cultural jewels of Florence, the Tuscan countryside beckons. Take a private tour of an organic farm bursting with olive groves and vineyards. From the antiquities of Rome to glamorous Lake Como, your journey is made complete with special connections tailored to your unique needs — culinary excursions, family-friendly activities, cultural enrichment, or any other type of experience you prefer.

JOURNEYS IN JAPAN

We'll take away all the stress from navigating between cities and connect you with locals who deftly guide you through every sight. Dedicate an entire day to immersing yourself in Tokyo's gardens, shrines and teahouses, and join your guide in a private car to the famed Tsukiji Outer Market. Speed to Hakone on a bullet train, thanks to your Japan Rail Pass, where a car is ready and waiting to transport you to your hotel. Endless options await in Kyoto — including flower arranging, calligraphy or origami classes as well as a hands-on tea ceremony — and you'll wander into more wonders with free time to explore.

Let us reserve your journey and we'll handle every detail — including providing special privileges in select hotels, transportation and private tours. Call, email or visit our website, found on the back cover. Enter OFFER M27443 to learn more.

Treasured Traditions of JAPAN

Japanese tea ceremony

Go beyond the icons and learn local rituals when you travel with Avanti Destinations.

Flashes of neon billboards and sky-high cityscapes may be the images you have of Japan. But as you explore further, you'll begin to understand the traditions that have carried over from the past to the hypermodern present. Let us work with the experts at Avanti Destinations to create a mindful journey that is entirely tailored to you.

From the cities to the countryside, an authentic Japanese tea ceremony is one of the essential experiences. Upon entering a simple wooden tea house, a calming atmosphere surrounds you. As you sit or kneel on tatami mats, your host's movements are intricate and precise — a ritual that has been passed down for centuries. During this event, your tea ceremony honors four principles: harmony (wa), respect (kei), purity (sei), and tranquility (jaku).

Japanese culinary traditions are unique to every region that you visit. Meet a guide to wander through Kyoto's Nishiki Market and dine on street food, fresh sushi and Japanese snacks. Gather fresh ingredients before walking through backstreets for a sake tasting, then regroup in a local town house for a hands-on cooking class.

Should your interests lead you toward different paths, we can arrange all the details. Explore an open-air museum in Hakone, wander through Kyoto's gardens and shrines, witness a maiko dance, and much more.

Ready to plan your cultural excursion to Japan? We'll help you connect experiences in the grand cities and the tranquil countryside. Give us a call, send an email or visit our website, found on the back cover. Enter OFFER M27526 to learn more.

SOUTH KOREA'S Intangible Heritage

Learn how long-held traditions keep local knowledge alive.

Baegyangsa Temple, Naejangsan Park, South Korea

In the windswept waters surrounding the volcanic island of Jeju, a local practice has thrived since the 17th century. Meet the haenyeo, the women divers of Jeju. Many of these resilient divers are respected elders who have spent decades free diving deep beneath the surface to harvest sea urchin, abalone and other morsels from the sea. Watch them in action, taste the treasures they gather and visit a museum dedicated to this community that has been inscribed on the UNESCO List of Intangible Cultural Heritage.

All throughout your journey in South Korea, traditions still loom large. Meet the masters who specialize in crafts such as finely lacquered tableware and ancient woodblock prints. Learn about the spiritual aspects of temple food during a stay at Baegyangsa Temple, and discover other examples of intangible heritage such as festivals, storytelling to a rhythmic drum beat and colorful mask dancing.

Local guides show off elements of South Korean culture that have made their way to the international stage. Taste the popular comfort food that comes from convenience stores and learn K-pop choreography from the experts.

From historical practices to modern-day life, you're invited to be a part of South Korea's culture. Call, email or visit our website, found on the back cover, and enter OFFER M27452 to learn more.

Diving Into FRENCH POLYNESIA

Explore expanded experiences with Windstar Cruises.

Star Breeze

Diving and snorkeling

As you arrive gracefully on an intimate ship, the beauty of the South Pacific and its emerald islands is breathtaking beyond comprehension. Yet it's the connections that Windstar Cruises has forged in French Polynesia that will elevate your well-deserved vacation into a journey of a lifetime.

For more than 36 years, Windstar Cruises has been confidently navigating the waters around French Polynesia. Now, the all-suite, 312-guest Star Breeze has arrived, doubling the number of guests who are invited to sail in these shimmering seas all year round. Your small ship can access the region's harder-to-reach harbors and sheltered lagoons, including a new 14-day voyage that reaches the remote Marquesas Islands.

Remaining unchanged is Windstar Cruises' dedication to local immersion, highlighted by an evening of fire dancing and dining on a private Tahitian motu. Engaging lessons give you newfound knowledge of regional traditions such as crafting a lei, tying a pareo and playing the ukulele, as taught to you by locals. Shore excursions go as deep into the culture as you desire, including an expanded partnership with Coral Gardeners — an unparalleled opportunity to meet a devoted team of conservationists and learn how they're working to restore the ocean, one coral at a time.

In connection with the legendary eco-resort The Brando, guests of Star Breeze's premium suites can now add the experience of spending two nights on a secluded atoll. Within this slice of paradise, you're free to explore just as you wish, from snorkeling a crystal-clear lagoon and joyfully peering at tropical birds to dining on Polynesian-inspired cuisine and unwinding in Varua Te Ora Polynesian Spa.

Tahitian dancer, InterContinental Tahiti Resort & Spa

Mana is the sacred force in The Islands of Tahiti, a powerful spirit that connects all living things. When you arrive on these islands, you'll not only see what sets them apart; you'll feel what it's like to be a part of this ancient culture.

From your first welcome with a lei made from tiaré flowers to a mesmerizing evening performance of Tahitian dance, a sense of belonging will overtake you. Feel the textures of coconut fibers and pandanus leaves used to weave traditional hats, bags and mats. Browse among prized souvenirs such as sculptures crafted from local rosewood and jewelry made from glowing Tahitian pearls.

With 118 islands across five archipelagos, each locale offers unique experiences and opportunities. On the Society Islands, your arrival in bustling Papeete soon leads you to Tahiti's lush tropical forests and crystalline lagoons, while Mo'orea is famed for its overwater bungalows surrounded by translucent waters. Zip onto the waters aboard a catamaran, visit a local village and savor bowls of poisson cru (fish marinated in coconut milk and citrus juice) — the national dish of The Islands of Tahiti.

Unparalleled natural wonders await you in the Tuamotu Islands. Plunge into the waters around the atoll of Rangiroa, where thousands of tropical fish, sea urchins and starfish live among the coral. Learn about the thriving pearl industry and sip wines in the only vineyard in all of The Islands of Tahiti.

Find further adventures in the more remote regions of the Marquesas Islands, Austral Islands and Gambier Islands. We're here to help bring you closer to these lands and their rich cultures. 5 WONDERS OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC

From the shallow seas of the South Pacific, spectacular views emerge of emerald-green mountain peaks and waters that shift from deep sapphire to clear turquoise. A voyage with Paul Gauguin Cruises enhances these breathtaking moments with deep cultural enrichment. Sail in luxury alongside Les Gauguines and Les Gauguins, a treasured troupe of Tahitians onboard the m/s Paul Gauguin, and discover these wonders ahead.

TAHITIAN PEARLS

Sourced from the black-lipped pearl oyster, Tahitian pearls have an iridescent sheen that shines in a full spectrum of colors. Hunt for your own souvenirs on an outing to a pearl farm in Rangiroa or Huahine.

TAHITIAN DANCE

Graceful performances by Les Gauguines and Les Gauguins will have you swaying along as you learn the nuances of 'Ori Tahiti, often accompanied by rhythmic drums, ukulele and guitar.

TAHITIAN VANILLA

Sought after by culinary enthusiasts around the world, Tahitian vanilla inspires a sensory journey. Beans are cultivated in a delicate process, primarily on the island of Taha'a, and featured in select dishes on your journey.

TIARÉ FLOWERS

From your first greeting with the gift of a lei to a lei-making class with members of Les Gauguines and Les Gauguins, learn how the fragrant tiaré flower is a cherished symbol of Tahitian culture. They are also used intertwined with greens to make the heis, ceremonial crowns worn at celebrations like a wedding, or even to celebrate the kickoff of a Polynesian vacation.

UNESCO TREASURES

In the Tuamotu Islands, the UNESCO biosphere reserve on Fakarava has one of the most well-preserved coral reefs in the world, making it a revered destination among divers and snorkelers. The island of Ra'iātea is a celebrated UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its archaeology, including the sacred marae of Taputapuātea.

OBSESSED WITH GLACIERS

Holland America Line debuts Glacier Day experiences in Alaska.

Mendenhall Glacier, Alaska

Standing on the open bow with towering sheets of ice and glimmering waters all around, visions of unbelievable beauty overtake you. The experts behind Holland America Line's Alaska voyages are as captivated as you are by up-close views of Glacier Bay National Park & Preserve, Hubbard Glacier, Dawes Glacier and the twin Sawyer Glaciers of Tracy Arm Fjord — and their passion makes your experience that much more rewarding.

With the newly debuted "Glacier Day," park rangers from Glacier Bay National Park & Preserve and Huna Tlingit cultural interpreters join you on board to share their perspectives. Pair these memorable conversations with thoughtful features like Glacier Ice cocktails and Dutch Pea Soup on deck and pause for unparalleled photo ops throughout the day.

Holland America Line's new Glacier Day complements the already in-depth "We Love Alaska" experiences. The groundbreaking Global Fresh Fish program makes Holland America Line the only major cruise line to serve certified sustainable Alaska seafood, including fish that goes from the water to your plate in less than 48 hours. Renowned chef Masaharu Morimoto brings his delicate touch as Fresh Fish Ambassador, crafting Fresh Black Cod Yuzu, Morimoto Epice Lobster and Fresh Halibut XO.

Dining is defined by special experiences like a new Alaska seafood boil and a delectable brunch menu. Cocktails by acclaimed bartender Sam Ross feature creative combinations — like the Frontier Champagne Flip made with bourbon, honey, vanilla, cream, egg, and champagne. The new Killer Whale Pale Ale is a must for beer enthusiasts, brought in from Seattle's oldest craft brewery with a label designed by Rico Lanáat' Worl, a Tlingit and Athabascan artist.

Once you arrive in port, enriching excursions unfold. Extend your glacier viewing experiences at Mendenhall or Portage glaciers. Witness majestic wildlife that's synonymous with Alaska, from massive humpback whales to brown bears roaming the coastline. With nearly 180 shore excursions that include outdoor adventures and wildlife viewing, the possibilities are endless.

Holland America Line's new Glacier Guarantee™ allows you to sail with confidence. Available through September 2025, this guarantee promises that if you do not visit an Alaska glacier, you will receive Future Cruise Credit equal to 15% of your cruise fare. To learn about this and other enhancements on your next voyage, give us a call or send us an email. Visit our website, found on the back cover, and enter OFFER M27629 to find upcoming voyages.

Exploring the Diverse Cultures in CANADA

By Debbie Olsen

I can see my warm breath in the icy air as I wander through the tiny unincorporated community of Carcross, Yukon. The colorful totem poles here sharply contrast the white snow that blankets the ground. I make my way inside Haa Shagóon Hídi, the community's cultural center, to meet with Violet Gatensby, a Carcross/Tagish First Nation artist.

Our small group of travelers follows Gatensby inside an expansive hall that houses an enormous, intricately carved canoe she crafted while apprenticing with Alaskan Tlingit master carver Wayne Price. After countless hours of work, the canoe holds deep meaning for the artist who is quickly becoming one of the most prominent Indigenous artists in the territory.

"Every time I see this canoe, I'm reminded that I can do anything," she said.

After talking about the canoe and why it is culturally significant, she then showed us another of her art pieces and explained the symbolism behind the wolf, caribou tracks, fish, and northern lights featured in the colorful carving. We only spent a couple of hours with this talented Indigenous artist, but it was enough time to feel her passion and appreciate the beauty of her culture.

The second-largest country in the world by total land area, Canada is a country of immigrants and Indigenous Peoples and is one of the most culturally diverse nations in the world. According to a 2020 government census, 92 percent of Canadians consider ethnic or cultural diversity to be a Canadian value. There are many cultures to explore on a visit to Canada, but three that are particularly unique and fascinating are Indigenous, French-Canadian and Acadian.

THE INDIGENOUS PEOPLES IN CANADA

Many different Indigenous nations and groups live in Canada. More than 70 different Indigenous languages are spoken by the Indigenous Peoples in Canada, which include First Nations, Inuit and Métis Peoples. Each group has their own customs, cultural traditions and legends. Indigenous tourism experiences are one of the best ways to explore these unique cultures, and it's one of the fastest-growing tourism sectors in Canada.

On my winter tour of the Yukon, I had the chance to meet two world-class Indigenous artists and talk to them about their art, discuss their lives in the Yukon and learn more about their cultures. On a previous visit to the Yukon, I met James Allen, a First Nations Elder and former Chief of the Champagne and Aishihik First Nations. He shared many Southern Tutchone legends in a storytelling session that I have never forgotten. I still think about those legends when I look at the night sky.

FRENCH-CANADIAN CULTURE AND JOIE DE VIVRE

The French and the British were the two colonizing nations of Canada, and since 1969, Canada has had two official languages — French and English. A large number of Francophone people live in Canada — particularly concentrated in Québec, which is the province where my mother's side of the family originates. The history of this region is fascinating, and perhaps no place is better to explore it than Old Québec in Québec City, a UNESCO World Heritage site and the cradle of French-Canadian culture in Canada. This fortified city is home to grand architecture such as Château Frontenac and an archaeological museum within Îlot des Palais — which was once the site of New France's first brewery. My explorations of French-Canadian culture in Québec have allowed me to experience the region's "joie de vivre" or "the joy of living." You can feel this joy in festivals like Québec City's Winter Carnival, by visiting a sugar shack during maple syrup season, or simply by sampling the unique foods of the region like wine and cheese, poutine or the legendary Montréal smoked meat sandwich.

THE STORIED PAST AND PRESENT OF ACADIAN CULTURE

In 1604, French explorers Pierre de Monts and Samuel de Champlain established Port-Royal in what is now the Maritime Province of Nova Scotia. This city became the heart of Acadia, a unique culture that still exists today and has a fascinating and storied past in Canada. The Acadians thrived and developed agricultural farmland using dykes and an aboiteau wooden sluice system.

The Expulsion of the Acadians by the British happened between 1755 and 1764 when the majority of the Acadians were forcibly removed from the region and their lands were given to British settlers. In 1847, American poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow wrote “Evangeline, A Tale of Acadie,” an epic poem about an Acadian girl named Evangeline and her search for her lost love, Gabriel, during the time of the Expulsion.

To understand Acadian culture, Port-Royal National Historic Site in Nova Scotia offers a living history experience featuring a reconstructed 17th-century settlement once known as the Habitation. Set within the former Acadian village of Grand-Pré, Grand-Pré National Historic Site is an important monument and museum.

Learn the powerful stories of the Acadian Expulsion, and wander the lovely Victorian garden to see the statue of Evangeline.

Delve into Canada’s diverse cultural heritage in regions throughout the country. From Indigenous treasures in the Yukon Territory to Acadian history in Nova Scotia and French-inspired culture in Québec, their legacies live on through storytelling. Where Two Icons Meet

Transit the legendary Panama Canal on a classic tall ship with Star Clippers.

Royal Clipper

Panama Canal locks

It's with a sense of triumph that Royal Clipper — a five-masted tall ship with 42 sails — arrives at the Panama Canal, ready to navigate the ingenious system that made its debut in 1914.

As the wind carries you through the blissful islands of the Caribbean to Panama's sunny shores, the transit experience is one of the great highlights. Enjoy your front-row seat as your ship rises and falls through the locks and you learn about the canal's historical significance.

On the Pacific side, a visit to the Miraflores Visitor Center reveals a whole new angle of the locks and channels. An excursion into Panama City takes you to the charming Panamá Viejo, the old quarter that has been named a UNESCO Archaeological Site. Or take a hike to Ancon Hill, a nature preserve where views of wildlife are matched only by your perspective of Panama City from high above.

As you sail away from every port, your captain will raise the sails to the dramatic sounds of Vangelis. Climb the mast to reach the crow's nest, which rises 75 feet over the water. Relax in the bowsprit netting above the ocean or retreat into a hidden balcony on either side of the bow.

As much as this journey pays homage to the past, you're assured all of the modern comforts. Make new friends at the Tropical Bar or sip pre-dinner drinks at the Piano Bar before settling down for open seating in the tri-level dining room. Attentive staff take care of every request as you enjoy wide-open deck spaces and three swimming pools during your leisurely days.

Let us start planning so you can be off on your adventure. Call, email or visit our website, found on the back cover. Enter OFFER M27408 to learn more.

Perfect Day at CocoCay

A DAY UNLIKE ANY OTHER

Whether you're stretched out on the beach or flying in the air, every perspective promises a good time at Royal Caribbean's Perfect Day at CocoCay.

On a Caribbean or Bahamian cruise with Royal Caribbean, Perfect Day at CocoCay is your all-in-one adventure, no strings attached (except in the helium balloon!). Sail into this exclusive retreat and let your day unfold exactly how you want it to — with perhaps a few unexpected thrills that you didn't know you had in you.

Made for families but tailored to anyone lucky enough to be here,

Perfect Day at CocoCay brings together peak adventures with ultimate relaxation. Spread out over 125 acres, you'll never feel overwhelmed and you're free to find different pockets of activities that call out to you.

Get drenched.

Several waterslides make up Thrill Waterpark, so you're in control of how high you ride. Take the ride of your life on the 135-foot-tall Daredevil's Peak®, quite literally the tallest waterslide in the Caribbean. As you plunge down a translucent tube, you'll face a thrilling 35 seconds of twists and turns with a watery end.

Climb to the 75-foot Dueling Demons drop slides, pick your slide — yellow or blue — and the countdown is on before you race to the bottom. The Manta Raycers top out at only 25 feet and deliver a splashy finish. Tackle the coils of the Green Mamba, drop into the vertical Screeching Serpent and take on the others for a full day of waterpark adventure.

New adventures in sight.

The newest addition to Perfect Day at CocoCay is also its boldest. Head to Hideaway Beach,™ an adults-only beachfront paradise. Backed by the rhythms of DJ beats, you can swim right up to the bar or take your pick of other lively watering holes. Whether you're in the mood for a pool party and pizza or a more exclusive escape in The Hideout™ cabanas with bottle service, this is the kind of beach bash that makes vacation worth dreaming about.

What does your Perfect Day at CocoCay look like? Let us reserve your next voyage so you can get started.

Get quenched.

Swim up to the bar at Oasis Lagoon and order a Coco Loco, a colorful frozen concoction made with tropical juices, coconut cream and rum.

On the east side of CocoCay, feel the vibes of Chill Island — the beach vacation you've been craving. Settle back in your private cabana perched on white-sand beaches just steps from crystal-clear waters. Fill up on a satisfying plate of Caribbean-style cuisine at Chill Grill with grab-and-go options and stop by the self-serve beer station for a cold one. Look out and you may get a glimpse of zip liners in action!

Time to take flight.

All ages are welcome on Up, Up & Away, a 10-minute helium balloon ride that soars up to 450 feet above the island. These are the highest views in the Bahamas, showing off the water's many shades of blue and contrasting hues of lush greenery against powdery white sands.

If chasing altitude is your thing, the zip line is next on your to-do list. Criss-cross the island on 1,600 feet of zip line, overlooking the Thrill Waterpark and the coastline before soaring across the harbor.

Sailors WANT TO BE

“Sea” the Caribbean with Virgin Voyages.

Valiant Lady, San Juan, Puerto Rico

What transforms a cruiser into a Sailor? It’s all about the spirit of discovery that leads you toward windblown shores while pursuing bold adventures that prove you’re far away from the ordinary: swimming with stingrays and zip lining in the canopy; meeting new people every day and dancing the night away.

In between those big occasions, Virgin Voyages courts you with the ultimate indulgences. Every voyage from Miami to the Caribbean includes a stop at the exclusive Beach Club at Bimini. Watch dolphins swim in the wild, sip tropical cocktails by the pool or relax in the privacy of your beachside cabana.

The award-winning Resilient Lady will also begin sailing from San Juan, Puerto Rico, into the far reaches of the Southern Caribbean. Expand your understanding of the world with an overnight stay in the cultural capital of Cartagena, Colombia, or explore late into the evening in Oranjestad, Aruba, or St. John’s, Antigua and Barbuda.

Now is the time to “sea” the Caribbean with 4- to 16-night sailings and receive over $1,000 in Always Included Luxury. That includes access to over 20 eateries with menus curated by Michelin-star chefs, group fitness classes, free Wi-Fi, included gratuities, award-winning entertainment, and a soda and drinks package. Call or email us to find your next voyage, or visit our website, found on the back cover, and enter OFFER M27441.

Explora Journeys’ intimate Destination Experiences tap directly into the benefits of the Mediterranean lifestyle.

Sailing across the Mediterranean Sea, it’s easy to slip into an Ocean State of Mind. On a voyage with Explora Journeys, the joy of your journey continues when you arrive on land. Make the most of your voyage with curated excursions that extract the very essence of the Mediterranean.

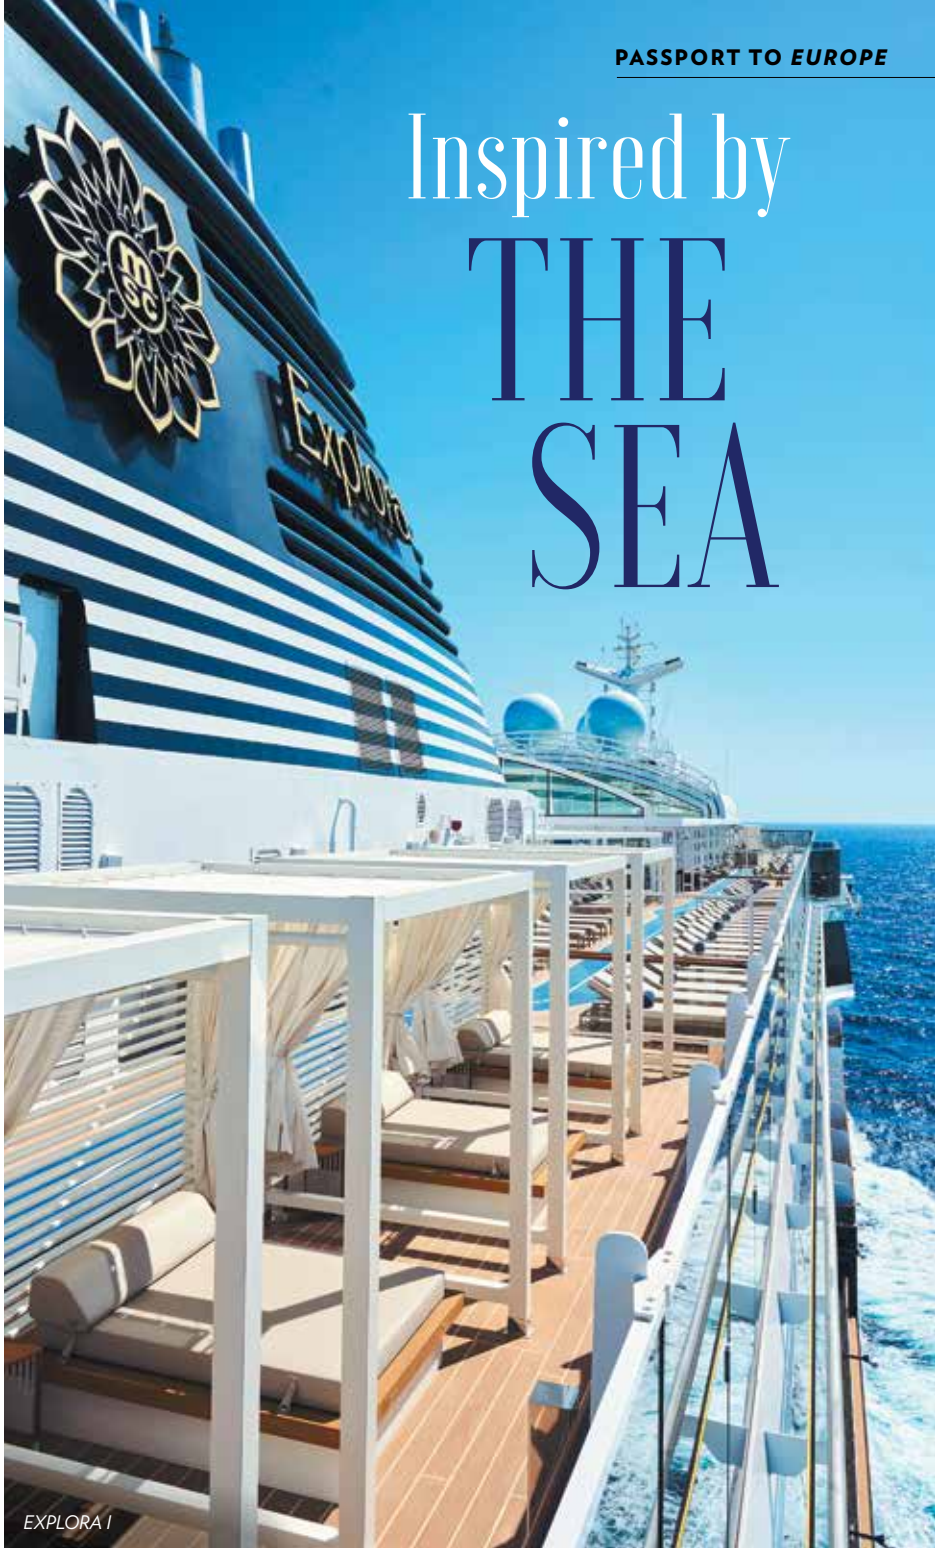

From the salt-kissed shores of Mykonos, your guide will whisk you into a different terrain altogether. On a sprawling organic farm and biodynamic vineyard, local vintner Nikos Asimomytis shares the fruits of his labor. Not only have his wines been cultivated without chemicals or pesticides, but the grapes themselves were nurtured by the sounds of classical music while still on the vines.

With its cobblestone roads and Renaissance walls, Lucca is a beautifully preserved Tuscan city by the river. Inhale the fresh air as you bicycle between the central sights and enjoy a picnic atop the medieval ramparts overlooking the city streets.

In the heart-shaped peninsula of Istria, a rare treasure grows. Discover the earthen delights of truffles, and spend time with a Croatian family who harvests them with the help of specially trained dogs. Join them on an exhilarating hunt through the woods, and sample artisan goods such as truffle-infused cheese, pâté and olive oil.

Back onboard your Explora Journeys ship, you’ll continue to feel the benefits of this Mediterranean voyage. From the salty sea air to sophisticated dining and ocean-inspired wellness experiences, these benefits will linger with you long after you return home. Saint-Emilion Bell Tower, Bordeaux, France

Meeting vintners on their own terrain, cycling past grapevines that seem to stretch on forever, and discovering ingredients that taste of the land and water around you — even if you think you know France, Uniworld Boutique River Cruises will show you more than you envisioned.

On board your luxury boutique river cruise, navigate the magnificent rivers of Bordeaux to explore this region's rich legacy and culinary bounty. Sip sweet sauternes in a 14th-century fortress and taste how white wine enhances the fresh flavors of Médoc oysters. Local tours take you into colorful farmers markets and an after-hours light show, while enhanced excursions feature a French cooking class or a grand cru tasting.

Follow the flow of the Rhône and Saône rivers to discover the many treasures of Burgundy and Provence. You'll stir up your senses on a vineyard hike and have an opportunity to meet the silk weavers of Lyon. Choose a local village outing where medieval homes still stand proudly or dig deep into the long-standing tradition of truffle hunting.

Compare and contrast wine regions of both French wine country and Portugal's Douro Valley in one voyage. Your palate will experience all sorts of varietals from the sweetness of white dessert wine from the Cadillac region of France to the famous port wine from Porto. Rooftop views, Madrid

PERSONAL PICKS IN

Local Lori Zaino shares her favorite places to explore in Spain's capital.

Madrid is a destination that bubbles with energy, and Madrileños are eager to share their culture with visitors. Even just an evening stroll can make you fall in love with the Spanish capital. My daily sunset walks take me past centuries-old landmarks and plazas abuzz with action as couples walk hand in hand, kids happily play and crowded outdoor terraces overflow with residents. Come to the Spanish capital for the iconic art, emblematic architecture and inviting restaurants, but stay and get to know the friendly locals, world-famous sports and even a Spanish pueblo or two.

Cultural Exploration

I could wander forever along Madrid's tree-lined boulevards, admiring the Art Deco architecture on Gran Vía or the historic literary streets of the Las Letras neighborhood. But Madrid's emblematic Golden Triangle of Art merits a stop. It includes three world-famous art museums: Museo del Prado, Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofía and Museo Nacional Thyssen-Bornemisza.

The Prado features classic art, home to works by El Greco, Goya and Velázquez. I head to the Reina Sofía when I need a boost of creativity, as the modern, surrealist works by Picasso and Dalí encourage self-reflection and imagination. The Thyssen has a mixture of art styles and regularly features special exhibits.

Madrid has a stately, regal air — many of its buildings were former palaces. But the official Palacio Real, distinguished and massive, is one of the largest in Western Europe with more than 3,000 rooms, including an armory, apothecary and a collection of Stradivarius string instruments.

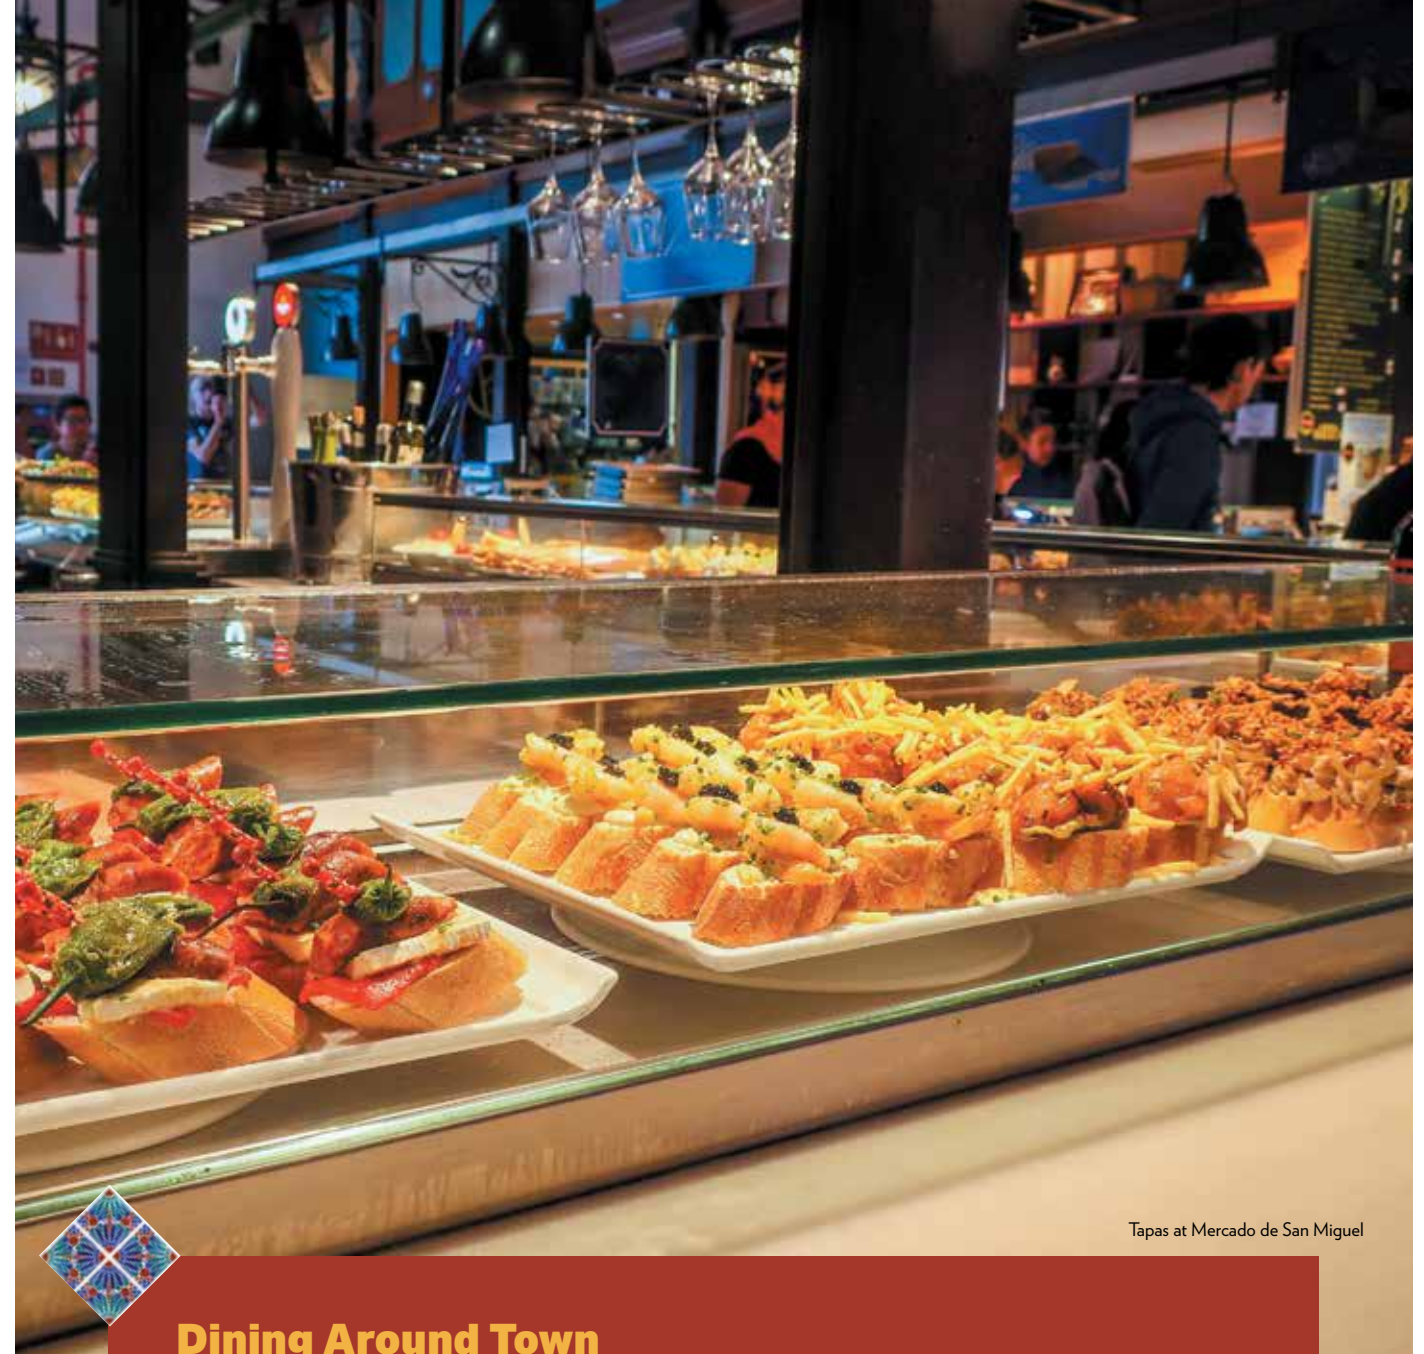

Nearby, Madrid's surroundings include three UNESCO World Heritage sites, my favorite of which is Alcalá de Henares, the birthplace of Miguel de Cervantes (author of "Don Quijote de la Mancha"). The others are Aranjuez and El Escorial, sprawling palaces with peaceful, inviting gardens.

Museo del Prado

Palacio Real

Tapas at Mercado de San Miguel

Dining Around Town

Madrid's broad range of culinary options makes it challenging (but exciting) to decide where to eat. The city has more than a dozen 100-year-old taverns, which sit next to Michelin-starred contemporary restaurants, tapas bars and trendy cocktail joints.

Start by familiarizing yourself with many of the city's top dishes by wandering through local food markets. There's the tourist-catered Mercado de San Miguel, where you can taste freshly sliced Iberian ham. More local markets include: Cebada, known for its decades-old seafood stands; Vallehermoso, where you can drink Asturian cider and get pulled pork sandwiches; and San Antón, which has an open-air rooftop terrace.

Some of Madrid's best cuisine is its simplest: eating a piping hot calamari sandwich as you wander through the 16th-century tiered Plaza Mayor or a runny tortilla española beneath Madrid's sunny skies after a stroll in El Retiro Park.

One of my favorite spots for a culture and cuisine combo is Corral de la Morería, a Michelin-starred flamenco tablao with fresh, local dishes served to the stomps and claps of flamenco. There's also Botín, the oldest restaurant in the world according to Guinness World Records. Or drink and tapear with local residents at the crowded centenarian Bodega de la Ardosa.

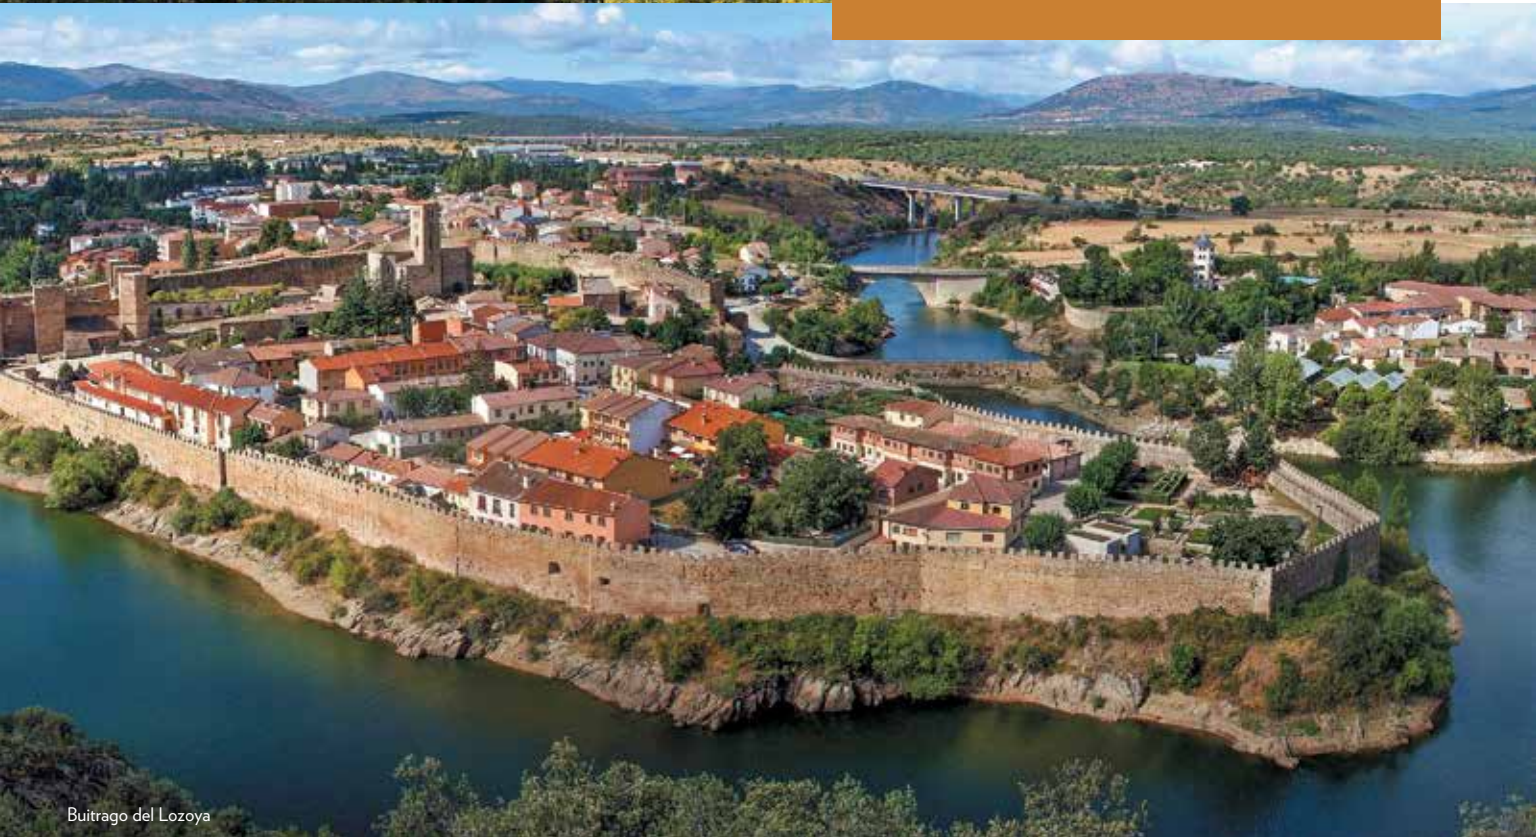

Vineyard, Rioja, Spain

Day Trips Worth the Drive

Just 30 minutes outside Madrid's city center, you'll find picturesque villages, towering mountain ranges and even vineyards and wineries. I love weaving past the olive groves to get to Chinchón, a medieval village whose multi-story Plaza Mayor has balconies with green wrought iron railings where you can dine overlooking a central bullring.

My personal pick is Buitrago del Lozoya, a mountain town with ninth-century Moorish walls that surround the city, a Gothic church and a castle. All of it is perched above the Lozoya River, an excellent spot for hikes and walks — my top choice when I need an infusion of nature.

Madrid's surroundings also have a wine scene that's starting to rival its Rioja and Ribera del Duero neighbors. Combine a trip to Chinchón with a stop at the family-run Bodegas Peral, where you can learn about Madrid's wines alongside tastings, dinners or concerts.

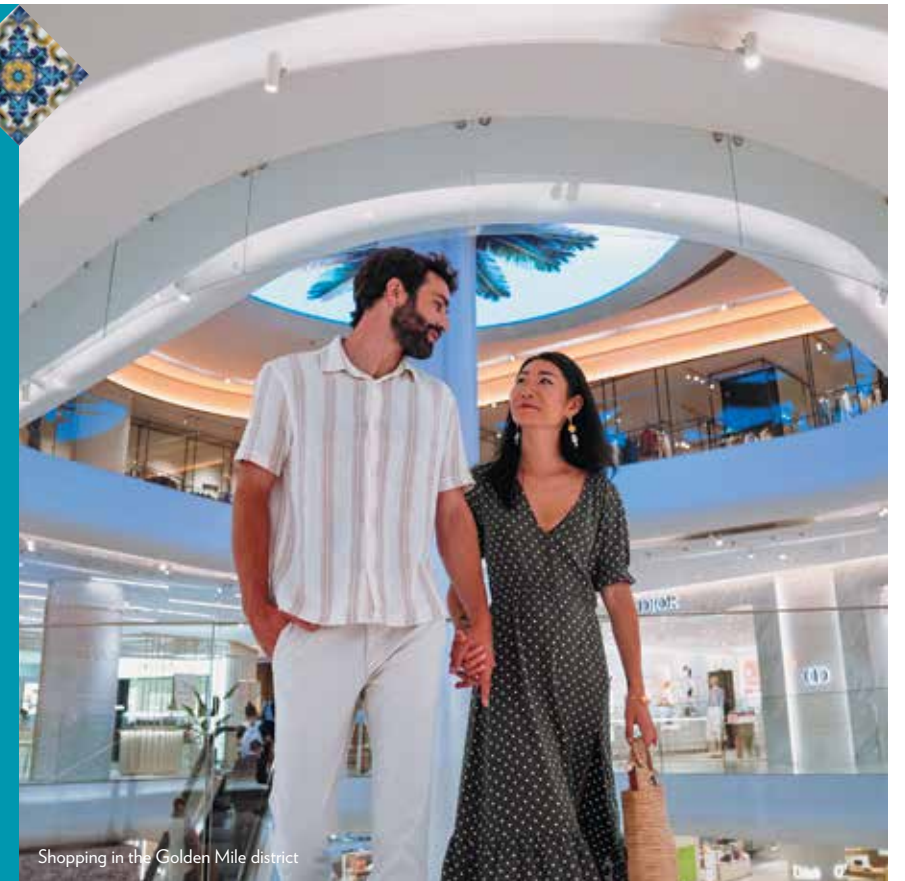

Buitrago del Lozoya

Savvy Souvenir Shopping

You can find dozens of luxury shops along the Golden Mile, a stretch of boutiques and designer stores along Calle Serrano, and a Zara on practically every corner.

But Madrid's timeless history makes it the perfect destination for antique shopping. Barter for souvenirs at the flea market, El Rastro, which occurs weekly on Sundays. For a taste of the city's artisanal goods, shop for handmade espadrilles at Antigua Casa Crespo or Casa Hernanz, fans at Casa de Diego, and capes made from Spanish wool at Capas Seseña. Whenever I need to pick up a handmade leather gift, I head to Casa Luque, one of the oldest glove shops in the city.

Shopping in the Golden Mile district

Fútbol

For Fútbol Fans

When I tell people around the world that I live in Madrid, their first response usually has something to do with fútbol. Even if you aren't a soccer superfan, Madrid's two main fútbol teams are some of the most famous on the planet: Real Madrid and Atlético de Madrid.

Although experiencing a game is the best way to understand more about Madrid's dedicated relationship with soccer and their beloved teams, you can also visit the team stadiums for an insider tour. And if you want to root for the underdog, catch a Rayo Vallecano, Club Deportivo Leganés or Getafe Club de Fútbol game, where you'll be surrounded almost exclusively by local fans.

Lori Zaino has been living in and writing about Madrid for nearly two decades. Bilingual in English and Spanish, she never gets tired of exploring the Spanish capital. You can find her sipping Spanish wine or admiring "Muchacha en La Ventana," her favorite Dalí painting, at the Reina Sofía.

Ashford Castle

A Journey of Discovery

From London and Edinburgh’s grandest hotels to a legendary castle in Ireland, history and heritage come to life with Red Carnation Hotels.

The Milestone Hotel & Residences

The Milestone Hermès Suite

The Milestone Oratory with Maison Margaux tableware

Echoes from the past ring throughout England, Scotland and the Republic of Ireland, honored and reimagined by the keepers of tradition. Let us arrange your perfect itinerary in these historic locales and plan your stays in Red Carnation Hotels’ most revered properties.

We’ll begin your adventure at The Milestone Hotel & Residences, putting you in the heart of all of London’s luxuries. This historic mansion sits opposite Kensington Palace and Gardens and is within walking distance of Royal Albert Hall, the Victoria and Albert Museum and the fashionable shopping district of Knightsbridge. Every one of the signature suites and private residences is uniquely designed with a stylish flair, plushly adorned with antique furniture and original artwork.

London’s luminaries seek out refined dining experiences at Cheneston’s (the early spelling of Kensington) Restaurant. Take a seat in the inviting Victorian-style dining room — where natural light floods over glowing mahogany accents — and choose from a tasting or à la carte menu with choices such as chicken and bacon pot pie or fresh scallops plucked from the Orkney Islands. Apéritif or digestifs are best enjoyed at the Stables Bar, a club-like lounge in what used to be the house’s original stables. (Tip: Served under a smoky glass dome, the smoking Milestone Old Fashioned is considered a London legend.)

Ask us about the exclusive experiences curated at The Milestone Hotel & Residences, including sitting for your own personal portrait, learning the art of foraging for wild, edible herbs and mushrooms, or enjoying a private recital from the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in your suite.

OUR EXCLUSIVES: Daily breakfast, plus $100 dining credit and a welcome gift from the General Manager. Suite and Villa Privileges include an additional $100 credit for lunch or dinner for two.

The Wallace

The Archibald Signature Suite

The Archibald Signature Suite

The Wallace

Whisked away to Edinburgh, your next abode awaits. 100 Princes Street is located in the city's cultural heart and offers one of the best views of Edinburgh Castle, watching over from atop a hill. Scottish explorers once called this residence their "home away from home," as it was the former headquarters of the Royal Over-Seas League. With just 30 rooms and suites, each space is individually designed — including two signature suites dedicated to renowned explorers Archibald Menzies and Isobel Wylie Hutchison.

No detail has been overlooked in this lavish space where global exploration is the central theme. Admire the hand-painted mural of Scottish explorers, tartans and nautical décor, and deep, rich tones throughout gathering spaces and private residences.

Ingredients from Scotland are given the gourmet treatment in The Wallace dining room, from Cumbrae oysters to Scottish salmon to a unique take on haggis. Enjoy a fine afternoon tea with all the frills, and participate in an exclusive tasting of rare Scottish whiskies.

OUR EXCLUSIVES: Full breakfast daily for up to two guests, also available with room service, plus $100 dining credit and a welcome amenity.

Through a set of stone gates, your finale awaits in Ireland's grandest icon: Ashford Castle.

Imposing in scale yet lovingly designed, this 800-year-old County Mayo landmark has the honor of being Ireland's first Forbes Five-Star hotel and the former home to the Guinness family. Every element of design has been carefully crafted to create the most sumptuous ambience, with unique works of art, Donegal crystal chandeliers and hand-carved fireplaces.

Set within 350 acres, every experience here is curated to inspire and delight you at every turn. See hawks in flight at the first School of Falconry in Ireland, and try your hand at archery and clay shooting. Outdoor excursions can include horseback riding through the woodlands, playing nine holes on a picturesque golf course and cruising around Lough Corrib, Ireland's second-largest lake. Noted for its multi-award-winning spa, Ashford Castle invites you on a restorative journey with a variety of personalized treatments within a breathtaking space.

Royalty, dignitaries and stars have all dined at The George V Dining Room, which was named for the Prince of Wales who visited in 1905. Under the sparkle of Waterford crystal chandeliers, choose from a robust menu of organic and locally sourced ingredients, culminating in a selection of tempting desserts and homemade petit fours. Bistro fare can be found in The Dungeon, a medieval-style dining area where steak tartare is deftly prepared tableside. Don't miss out on Ashford Castle's unparalleled afternoon tea in the stylish Connaught Room, pairing your chosen tea or champagne with delicate finger sandwiches, warm scones with clotted cream, jam and lemon curd, and an array of handmade pastries.

OUR EXCLUSIVES: Full Irish breakfast for two daily, $100 dining credit and complimentary green fees.

Ashford Castle Stateroom

THE ANTICIPATION OF EXPLORATION

Planning ahead with Crystal pays off in more ways than one.

Voyages of splendor blend with bespoke excursions, thanks to the union of Crystal and Abercrombie & Kent. Your heart may skip a beat with excitement when you envision all that awaits you — beginning with your first view of Crystal Serenity or Crystal Symphony and culminating in unparalleled service and in-depth exploration.

Crystal ship at sea

Machu Picchu, Peru

We'll help you secure the greatest value with the evergreen Crystal Explorer Fare. When we reserve your voyage 12 months in advance with a nonrefundable rate, you save 20%; reserving a refundable rate will save you 10% off your fare.

With that sense of security in hand, it's time to let your imagination fly. Sumptuous suites are comfortable and inviting, making you feel perfectly at home while dedicated staff attend to your every need.

Onboard dining is as refined as it gets, with nine culinary options including Japanese-Peruvian fusion at Umi Uma, fine Italian at Osteria d'Ovidio and gourmet wine-paired meals in The Vintage Room. Casual bites by the pool and creamy scoops of Italian gelato send you straight into a relaxed state of mind.

A sense of excitement builds every time you arrive at a different port. Experience Abercrombie & Kent's destination excellence in its portfolio of shore excursions that let you live out every travel dream. Explore the medieval walled city of Dubrovnik and sail through translucent blue waters aboard a private boat, or set out on a tour of a botanical garden followed by a feast celebrating Croatia's prized Ston oysters. Anywhere you sail, you'll find one discovery after another — like a rustic cooking lesson in a Tuscan farmhouse or a vineyard tour in search of the best Super Tuscans. An overnight stay in magical Istanbul lets you fill up on adventures from bustling bazaars to an authentic Turkish bath.

Grab on to that feeling of anticipation by giving us a call or sending an email to reserve your voyage and save 10%–20% on your fare. To see a collection of voyages, visit our website, found on the back cover, and enter OFFER M27434.

WHERE THE SUN REVOLVES AROUND YOU

Cirque Éloize

Soak it all in aboard Sun Princess[®] and Star Princess[®] (debuting in fall of 2025) – the newest next-level Love Boats from Princess.

These groundbreaking vessels have more than 1500 balconies and over 30 bars and restaurants with a bustling Piazza. A top-deck dome is a poolside retreat by day and stage by night, featuring acrobatic performances created in partnership with Cirque Éloize.

Captivating entertainment also includes Spellbound by Magic Castle, a spectacular one-of-a-kind experience that brings you into a private club-like setting featuring imaginative cocktails and dazzling magicians. Within the state-of-the-art Princess[®] Arena, live performances become true showstoppers in a space that shifts to accommodate different productions, such as Vallora, A Pirate Quest and the Latin-inspired Viva La Música.

Mealtime with your loved ones is always a joy with so many choices on board. The reinvented Main Dining Room is a classic experience that has been fully reimaged over three stories while specialty dining fulfills any and every craving. You'll fall head over heels for Love by Britto, created in partnership with artist Romero Britto and culinary virtuoso Rudi Sodamin. Your favorite Princess[®] restaurants, including Sabatini's Italian Trattoria and Crown Grill, are joined by Umai Teppanyaki and Hot Pot and O'Malley's Irish Pub.

Contact us to reserve your spot on Sun Princess[®] or Star Princess[®] and be a part of something exciting and new on Princess.

DESIGNED FOR EXPLORATION

Viking Longship® on the Rhine

Amstel River, Amsterdam, Netherlands

On vessels built to navigate the world's rivers, Viking® voyages were created for curious travelers.

Veranda Suite

While the sleek lines and serene Scandinavian design may be the first thing you notice about your ship, sailing The Viking Way means so much more. Every Viking river voyage is rooted in destination immersion, sailing smoothly into intimate ports and expanding your view of local cultures from ship to shore.

Begin by selecting which river region you're ready to explore — including longtime favorites such as a dreamy voyage along the Danube, cultural enrichment on the Rhine, French delights on the Seine and Central European exploration on the Elbe. Viking has longtime connections in each of these destinations and is prepared to usher you in with style.

Aquavit Terrace®

As you approach every new port, onboard experts offer insights and overviews about what to anticipate the next day. Guest lecturers show you why Viking is considered “the thinking person’s travel experience,” shedding light on topics such as cultural arts and historical treasures. Shore excursions are crafted with intention to ensure you get the most out of your time on land, whether it’s listening to Mozart and Strauss in the heart of Vienna or enjoying a regional wine-paired meal in a former Cistercian monastery.

BEYOND THE WORLD'S RIVERS

Viking made its mark in river cruising and has since flourished in both ocean and expedition voyages. It's no wonder that Condé Nast Traveler readers voted Viking the #1 River, Ocean and Expedition Line in the 2023 Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards — the first time such accolades have been awarded simultaneously.

Viking Longship on the Danube

Your days can be as exhilarating as you'd like, with opportunities to bicycle between towns and hike up to a hilltop castle. Local Life excursions show you perspectives that not every traveler gets to experience, such as sipping Cologne's famous beer in a historic Brauhaus restaurant or dipping into the therapeutic waters of a Budapest thermal spa.

Cultural immersion is also central to your time on board your ship. Curated entertainment creates emotional ties to the places you visit, from enchanting Viennese opera to the moody sounds of Portuguese fado. Cooking demonstrations reveal traditional recipes of local food and drink, while artisans share the secrets of their time-honored crafts. Whether you're sipping a flight of regional wines or browsing the hand-selected library to enhance your understanding of this region, each detail is designed to enrich your experience.

Every Viking river voyage includes a complimentary shore excursion in every port, all onboard meals, complimentary beer and wine with onboard lunch and dinner, enrichment lectures, destination performances, and more. Reach out to us to find a river itinerary that matches your passions and timeline and we'll get started.

YOU'LL LOVE IT ON THE EDGE

Outward-facing design meets innovative experiences on Celebrity Cruises' Edge Series.

Five cutting-edge ships put a world of adventures within reach. You can join Celebrity Cruises on voyages to all seven continents, including exciting ports of call in Alaska, Europe, the Caribbean, and many more — and the moments that stand out the most might very well be those that you experience on board.

Edge Series ships have a way of surprising and delighting you in the most unexpected ways. A touch of a button opens up your Infinite Veranda, allowing fresh air and views of the open sea to flow into your stateroom. Order a Mediterranean feast, taste the authentic flavors of Tuscany, evoke the essence of Paris, and enjoy your favorite modern American dishes — all complimentary with dishes made fresh daily and inspired by the regions we visit.

With spaces that are destinations on their own, your Edge Series ship is always shifting and transforming. The bright tangerine Magic Carpet is a vision to behold and is even more exciting when you're soaring through the air high above the sea. The world's first cantilevered floating platform recreates itself one level at a time — as a restaurant, a bar and lounge, and a gateway to your tender. The Grand Plaza spans three airy decks, lit up by a dazzling chandelier, where bartenders show off their talents. Look over the very edge of the ship from the lush Rooftop Garden and soak up those ocean views from the outward-facing Resort Deck.

Choose from five groundbreaking vessels and the level of accommodations you wish to experience — including The Retreat, the most elevated suite experience at sea with access to exclusive onboard spaces, like a private restaurant, and your dedicated butler who is just a message away. Give us a call, send an email or visit our website, found on the back cover, and enter OFFER M27353 to learn more.

CELEBRITY CHANGES THE GAME AGAIN

We can't wait to show you all the thrilling details of Celebrity Xcel, a new Edge Series ship that sails in a class of its own. Debuting in the Caribbean in November 2025, Celebrity Xcel brings together favorite experiences with new innovations that reach even greater heights. Give us a call or send an email so we can keep you updated!
